

Sale

TRUNK GOLF GLOVES

And what could be more timely, coming as it does at a time when it's a case of buy warm Gloves or have cold hands?

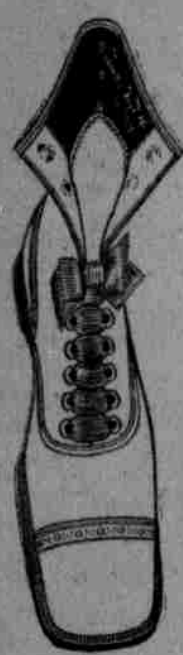

Saturday morning we shall put on sale about ten dozen Golf Gloves in white—some heavy, some medium weight—all perfect, not one but what is worth and has sold for 50c per pair. Saturday, per pair, 32c

Also about four dozen Golf Gloves that were bought to sell for 25c per pair. They are not up to "our standard" of a 25c Glove, so we put them in at a loss to close them out quickly. Black, white, mode and blue. Saturday, per pair, 15c

UNDERWEAR

At the same time, remember, we are showing a complete line of Underwear for the Mother, the Child, the Miss and the Boy. The Mentor make is selling way beyond our expectations, and why shouldn't it sell if quality counts?

HOMER FITTS

Little Folks' Feet!

They are carefully looked after here. We fit the feet of the little ones as they should be fitted.

We have the lines of Shoes, too, that give satisfaction—The Williams-Hoyt, Educator and Spartan. Common-sense lasts.

Bright, snappy styles and durable sole-leather are some of the features of these Shoes.

Great Sale of Underwear!

HERE WE ARE AGAIN FOR SATURDAY, OCT. 28.

One case of Men's Heavy Fleece Underwear at 39c per garment, or two pieces for 75c, or four pieces for $1.50. Why should you pay more? These goods were received this week from the mill, amounting to 36 dozen or 432 pieces. Just think how many men can be fitted out. The goods come in all sizes from 32 to 46 measure and are wool mixed sanitary fleece-lined, and so labeled, in a silver grey color, one of the best 50c grades of Underwear on the market today and sold for that in all the large cities, but as the case was delayed in transit we want to make a quick run on same, therefore our low price for Saturday. Come early in the day to avoid the rush. If you cannot come yourself send for it and we will fill your order with satisfaction or your money back. Do not buy until you see these. You can't afford to miss this sale. Look for display in window.

Inexcusable.

Mrs. Upjohn—What is the trouble between you and Mrs. Highmuss?

Mrs. Excuse—There is no trouble. We don't go shopping together any more, that is all. She mortified me beyond measure the other morning when we were at a furniture store, by asking the man if he would be kind enough to explain to her the difference between a hassock and an ottoman.—Chicago Tribune.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Will Sutter brought home a deer last night, which he shot while hunting in Marshfield Tuesday, weighing about 150. This is the first one heard from in town although there are several hopeful hunters.

Bert Young is ill, the result of injuries received a short time ago while leading a cow, being thrown to the ground and quite badly hurt. It is hoped he will soon be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cochran of Boltonville visited Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Drury the first of the week.

Eugene Call is doing quite an extensive business making cider. Loads of apples are continually coming from this and adjoining towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fifield and two children of Pittsfield are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fifield and family.

A great improvement is being made by clearing off brush and filling in the frog pond near the station.

Mrs. J. A. Sanders is papering Jerry Hutchinson's new house near the cemetery.

Frank York hurt one of his eyes quite badly by a stone chip striking it. It will trouble him for some time, but it is hoped the injury will not be serious.

Eager for the Joke.

A dark preacher was lost in the happy selection of his text, which he repeated in various accents of pleading.

"Oh, brethren, at de las' day dere's gwine to be sheep an' dere's gwine to be goats. Who's gwine to be de sheep, an' who's gwine to be de goats? Let's all try to be like li't white lambs, brethren. Shall we be de goats' sisters? Now, we's gwine to be de sheep. Who's gwine to be de sheep, brethren, an' who's gwine to be de goats? Tak' care of youn souls, sisters. Remember, dere's gwine to be goat an' sheep. Who's gwine to be de sheep an' who's gwine to be de goats?"

Just then a solitary Irishman who had been sitting in the back of the church, listening attentively, rose and said: "O'll be the goat. Go on; tell us. O'll be the goat. O'll be the goat."—Lippincott's Magazine.

THIS SHOE SETS THE STYLE.

What do we mean when we say the style of most shoes for women originates with "Queen Quality"? Simply this: The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been, a leader. It originated, and has established, a reputation for STYLE and BEAUTY. Others await their appearance and copy as closely as possible. Then we show you a greater variety than can be displayed in any other Shoe. New styles just in. Watch our window.
